

Homework Grid -Summer 2

Please choose at least 5/9 choices below to complete over this second half term. Hand in via Teams/in school by Wednesday 24th July 2024.

Geography Our new Topic will be focussed on global warming. Can you create a poster about what global warming is so that people know how they can help to change what is happening to the earth? 	PE For your PE task, try to practise and improve your throwing and catching skills. How many times can you throw and catch a ball with another person without dropping it? 	DT Have a go at designing your own torch using materials from home. Remember to have an adult present when cutting or using tools.
PSHE As this is the final half term of Year 4, we would like you to think about what you have achieved this year. What has been your biggest achievement? You can draw or write about it. 	Music Have a go at making your very own musical instrument out of recyclable materials from your home. Can your instrument change pitch? We look forward to seeing (and hearing) some of your creations! 	RE Our topic this half term is Hinduism. Research some of the Hindu gods and choose one to focus on. Draw a picture of your chosen Hindu god and write three facts about it.
English In English, we have been reading 'Greta and the Giants'. We have been looking specifically at deforestation. Can you create a flyer to persuade people to stop the unnecessary cutting down of trees? Remember to include persuasive language. 	English Below is a Haiku poem. Can you create your own? Remember, a Haiku poem is only three lines, totalling 17 syllables. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The first line is 5 syllables. 2. The second line is 7 syllables. 3. The third line is 5 syllables. An ocean voyage. As waves break over the bow, The sea welcomes me.	PSHE As you're coming close to the end of Year 4, we would like you to think about your goals for Y5. Choose and write about three goals that you would like to set yourself for Y5.
