

NEWSLETTER 35 - 8th September 2025

Dear Parents/Carers,

It was wonderful to welcome the children back to school last week. They settled quickly into their new classes and are already working hard. I would like to welcome all new families and children to High Street.

May I take this opportunity to thank you for supporting our uniform policy. The children looked so smart on their return. Please can we ask that you regularly check that names are in their items of uniform so that we can return them if lost.
